TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

OCTOBER 2, 2016

DEDICATION OF STATUE

Father, we know that you exist. In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Bishop Noonan, Father Waters, Priests, Deacons, Staff, Parishioners, Visitors, and my fellow Veterans.

Greetings.

To those who served in combat I suggest the question, "Where did you find God on the battlefield?" How many of us found Our Lord and Savior in the words and actions of the Chaplain, the Padre, the Father, the Priest by any name?

I know the name of the Army Chaplain depicted in this statue: it is Father Emil Kapaun, a Priest from Kansas, who after tending to scores of fellow prisoners died as a POW in Korea.

I know the name of the Naval Padre depicted in this statue: it is Father Vincent Capodanno, a Maryknoll Priest from New York, who while tending to wounded Marines during battle in Vietnam succumbed to his own wounds.

I know the name of the Naval Padre depicted in this statue: it is Father Joseph O'Callahan, a Jesuit priest, who in WWII ministered to wounded sailors on a ship hit by two bombs.

I know the name of the Army Chaplain depicted in this statue: it is Father Charles Watter, a Priest from New Jersey, who in the battle of Dak To, ran through intense gunfire to help wounded soldiers and was killed in what has been titled the worst "Friendly Fire" incident in Vietnam.

I know the name of the Army Chaplain depicted in this statue: it is Father Angelo Liteky, a Priest who carried 20 wounded soldiers to safety during intense fighting on a search-and-destroy mission in Vietnam.

Five Catholic priests. Five Catholic Chaplains and Padres. And all five recipients of the Congressional Medal of Honor. And in addition to that, both Father Kapaun and Father Capodanno are established on the

*I remind you, to stir into flame
the gift of God that you have through the imposition of my hands.
For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice
but rather of power and love and self-control.
So do not be ashamed of your testimony to our Lord,
nor of me, a prisoner for his sake;
but bear your share of hardship for the gospel
with the strength that comes from God.*
1 Tim 1: 6-8

My Sisters and Brothers in Christ:

St. Paul shares with the early Christians some of his frustrations as he exhorts them to speak up and tell the people about what they have learned about Jesus and how they have come to believe in Him as Savior. It was a difficult time for these early Christians. If they spoke about Jesus, they were persecuted and put to death. They were quieted by the crowds who had other, more popular beliefs. The early Christians are relying on St. Paul to be their voice and he is saying to them that God did not give them a spirit of cowardice; that they shouldn't be ashamed of their testimony to God.

I sometimes feel like St. Paul as I receive phone calls or emails or letters from you asking me what I am doing about the sinfulness of society or something that was published in the newspaper or told by a neighbor. We are all called to enkindle a deeper faith in the hearts of the people; this is not something that is reserved simply for the ordained or religious sisters. Each one of us has a unique responsibility to act as God has called us through our baptism; to live through, with and in God.

In order to share our faith and stir it into flame, we must also know what we believe. We must attend to prayer, to study, to participate in the Sacraments, to make God a part of our language, the wholeness of our being. To live our faith is not something relegated to a particular hour but it is a 24/7/365 undertaking. St. Paul asks the early Christians to bear their share of hardship for the gospel with the strength that comes from God. Living our faith 24/7/365 is a hardship and a challenge when we live in a world in which what we believe is distorted by secularism or the lure of false gods distracts our attention away from God.

Pope Francis commented that Christians can respond to the world's 'astuteness,' with their own, namely through a gift of the Holy Spirit. "This refers," Pope Francis explained, "to depart from the spirit and values of the world, which the devil likes, in order to live according to the Gospel."

"And worldliness, how is it manifested?" he asked. "Worldliness is manifested by attitudes of corruption, deception, abuse of power, and constitutes the most wrong road, the road of sin, because one thing brings you to another! It's like a chain (vicious cycle), even if – it is true – that it is generally the easiest one to follow." Pope Francis continues and says that, while the path to depart from the spirit and values of the world may be a hardship, he says to "walk it with energy and determination, relying on God's grace and the support of His Spirit."

As Catholics, we find this path particularly daunting as we celebrate Respect Life Month this October. We are frustrated because our beliefs may not echo the ways of the world. We seek to be transparent before God and to be open to God. We are created out of nothing as pure gift by the God of love and when we offend God, when we sin, out of this free love we are again redeemed by Christ and the Holy Spirit leads us back to our true happiness and our true home.

In this understanding of our entire being as a pure gift of God, we are asked not to destroy ourselves but to respect ourselves. This respect is born out of the dignity as we are a gift of God. Through our entire being we bring forth God's love to spread throughout the land.

But, we can't choose when we want to respect life and when we don't. Respecting life from conception to natural death involves each person's entire lifetime, not just at the beginning or the end. All of us are called to respect life and care for it. God's love is unitive not divisive. How might our judgements or words of disgust fail to respect life? When we speak with each other about our beliefs, we must speak with mercy. We are called to break the logic of violence, exploitation and selfishness so that our every action will be of God.

The 30th Annual State-wide Respect Life Conference is being held October 14-15 at Sts. Peter & Paul Catholic Church in Winter Park. The Conference presents a wonderful opportunity to refresh or learn anew about the Church's teaching on Respect Life. If you have not already registered, I encourage you to do so.

May we stir into flame the gift of God.

Most Reverend John Noonan
Bishop, Diocese of Orlando path to Sainthood.

They walked among us. They lived with us. They helped us understand the horrors of war. They comforted us. They gave us strength. They forgave our sins. And yes, some of them died for us.

There are many meanings in this statue and veteran must make it their own. It belongs to ever Airman, every Soldier, every Coastie, every Marine, and every Sailor. But for me personally, there are two things this statue captures in my heart, mind and soul, "Marine, your sins are forgiven," and "Marine, the Body of Christ."

MERCIFUL LIKE THE FATHER

DIOCESE OF ORLANDO RESPECT LIFE CONFERENCE
OCTOBER 14 & 15, 2016

Bishop John Noonan invites you to attend "Merciful Like the Father," the State Respect Life Conference sponsored by the Florida Conference of Catholic Bishops Pro-Life Coordinating Committee, on October 14-15, 2016 at Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church, 5300 Old

Merciful Like the Father

Howell Branch Road, Winter Park. The conference features a variety of workshops designed to help energize, educate and engage all Catholics on the mission of mercy and evangelization in the life of the Church. For ticketing and registration details, visit www.orlandodiocese.org/rlc-welcome/.

" God's mercy can make even the driest land become a garden, can restore life to dry bones (cf. Ez 37:1-14). ... Let us be renewed by God's mercy, let us be loved by Jesus, let us enable the power of his love to transform our lives too; and let us become agents of this mercy, channels through which God can water the earth, protect all creation and make justice and peace flourish." - Pope Francis

Sponsored by the Florida Conference of Catholic Bishops State Pro-Life Coordinating Committee.

RESPECT LIFE MINISTRY

The Respect Life Ministry will gather for the 8:30 AM Mass on Monday, October 3. We will pray the rosary for the unborn right after Mass followed by a short meeting in the ministry building. Please keep in mind (and on your calendar) the upcoming Annual Life Chain, Sunday, October 30 from 2:00-3:00 PM, more information to follow. Many states now protect women and girls through laws requiring informed consent, parental consent, waiting periods and clinic regulations. The US House of Representatives are leading the effort to add enforcement to the Born-Alive Abortion Survivors Protection Act.

GRIEF SUPPORT GROUP

Figuring out what to say, or how to be a help to a friend who is grieving, is not easy. Sometimes, all you can say is "I am so sorry. This must be difficult!" To say nothing is to deny the loss. Join the Grief Support Ministry each Thursday morning in the Ministry Building from 9:30 to 11:00am. We care about you.

MISSION AND MERCY

POPE FRANCIS, SHEPHERD OF TRUTH

Notable quotations from Pope Francis and official teachings of the Roman Catholic Church

"DISTINCT LIGHT"

The Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy, which the Church is celebrating, casts a distinct light on World Mission Sunday 2016 (October 16): it invites us to consider the missio ad gentes as a great, immense work of mercy, both spiritual and material. All are invited to "go out" as missionary disciples, each generously offering their talents, creativity, wisdom and experience in order to bring the message of God's tenderness and compassion to the entire human family.

"DEEP JOY"

When mercy encounters a person, it brings deep joy to the Father's heart; for from the beginning the Father has lovingly turned towards the most vulnerable, because His greatness and power are revealed precisely in His capacity to identify with the young, the marginalized and the oppressed. He is a kind, caring and faithful God who is close to those in need, especially the poor; He involves Himself tenderly in human reality just as a father and mother do in the lives of their children.

LEARN TO LOVE

When we welcome and follow Jesus by means of the Gospel and sacraments, we can, with the help of the Holy Spirit, become merciful as our heavenly Father is merciful; we can learn to love as He loves us and make of our lives, a free gift, a sign of His goodness.

"LIVES BY THE MERCY OF CHRIST"

The Church is the community that lives by the mercy of Christ: she senses His gaze and feels He has chosen her with His merciful love. It is through this love that the Church discovers its mandate, lives it and makes it known to all peoples through a respectful dialogue with every culture and religious belief.

"GOD'S GIFT"

Faith is God's gift and not the result of proselytizing; rather it grows thanks to the faith and charity of evangelizers who witness to Christ.

"A LOVE WITHOUT LIMITS"

As they travel through the streets of the world, the disciples of Jesus need to have a love without limits, the same measure of love that our Lord has for all people. We proclaim the most beautiful and greatest gifts that he has given us: His life and His love.

A GIFT FOR ALL

All peoples and cultures have the right to receive the message of salvation which is God's gift to every person... Missionaries know from experience that the Gospel of forgiveness and mercy can bring joy and reconciliation, justice and peace.

LEARN FROM MARY

May Holy Mary, sublime icon of redeemed humanity, model of missionaries for the Church, teach all men, women and families, to foster and safeguard the living and mysterious presence of the Risen Lord in every place, He who renews personal relationships, cultures and peoples, and who fills all with joyful mercy.

LAST SUPPER

PERPETUAL ADORATION CHAPEL

The Chapel is available for quiet adoration in the presence of the Eucharist.

Cards with information on how you may access the Chapel are available in the Church Office (9:00 AM-4:00 PM Monday – Friday).

Please, DO NOT leave any items, Rosary, prayer cards, booklets, etc., in the Adoration Chapel.

When entering the Last Supper Adoration Chapel, it is necessary to place your full palm against the key pad before entering code.

While at prayer, please pray for an increase in the call to priesthood.

CANDLES

Six-day candles for the candle stands are available in the Gift Shop (see hours above) or in the Church Office 9:00 AM-4:00 PM Monday to Friday for $5.00 each (please bring exact amount).

Other candles burn the red glass at the bottom requiring costly replacement. Please do not burn any candles other than the ones sold in the Gift Shop and Church Office.

In the event the store and office are closed, please see Fr. Ed for candles.

PLEASE BE MINDFUL!

When entering Church, please be mindful that many people are praying. If you wish to greet someone do so in quiet tones so as not to disturb another's prayer time.

SERVICE ANIMALS

While Service Animals are welcome in Church to accompany disabled individuals, anyone with a service animal should sit in the Narthex by the doors. Your assistance is greatly appreciated.
